

March 8 2007 8:00 PT
Q13 MORNING
SEATTLE-TACOMA, WA

The Donald could be making his mark right here in Seattle. Donald Trump is looking into adding a high end luxury hotel or condo tower in downtown Seattle.....The Seattle Times report that Trump's daughter, Ivanka is now looking for a spot to build a luxury hotel or condo complex right in the downtown Seattle. It's not clear where such a building could be built. In terms of what developers are saying locally, one developer..... Spencer Alpert working with Trump says that he is hoping to work out a location here in the Seattle area over the next few months with the possibility of some sort of new Trump Towers opening here in late 2009.

Q13 FOX NEWS